Florence, March 23. N. S.

THE Spaniſh Army, accompanied by 15 Battalions and 9 Squadrons of Neapolitan Troops, continue their March in ſeveral Columns towards the Romagnia. Prince Lobcowitz lately detached a Party of his Huſſars and ſome Croats to Peſaro, Fano, and Sinigaglia, in order to obſerve the Enemy. From this laſt Town they carried off a Spaniſh Officer who was recruiting there, together with all his Money and Recruits. His Highneſs has alſo cauſed his Artillery to advance from Boulogne, and is making all the neceſſary Diſpoſitions to retard the Enemy, till ſuch Time as he can be enabled, by the Junction of a ſufficient Reinforcement, to act upon the Offenſive. It is thought, that the Queen's Army will take Poſt at Forli, between the Rivers Ronco and Montone. We have other Advices here, confirmed by Deſerters, who come in every Day, that the whole Army under Count Gage does not exceed 22000 Men, including Sick. The greateſt Part of the Deſerters, who paſs through Tuſcany, are French, who are returning into their own Country, in order to take the Benefit of the General Pardon, which the Court of France has lately publiſhed. The General Botta Adorno is expected here ſoon. He has been named by the Grand Duke to command his Troops in Tuſcany, in the room of Baron Braitwitz, who has demanded and obtained Leave to retire. The Count de Richecourt, it is ſaid, is named by the Grand Duke as his Miniſter at the Diet of Election at Franckfort, and his Brother, Miniſter at Turin, in the mean while, is to perform his Office in Tuſcany. We have a Report here, as if the grand Magazine of Proviſions and Forrage, which the Spaniards had at Fano, had been burnt. If this be true, it will greatly retard their Operations.

Geneva, March 26. The Spaniſh Troops that wintered in Savoy, the greateſt Part of which conſiſts of Cavalry, having received Orders within theſe few Days to quit that Country, and to march into the County of Nice, are already in Motion that Way. The Troops remaining in Savoy will conſiſt only of a ſufficient Body for raiſing the Contributions, which are ſo exceſſive, that the Country is already almoſt ruined by them.

St. James's, April 6.

It is His Majeſty's farther Pleaſure, that for the future, all Soldiers, (whether Horſe, Dragoons, or Foot) tryed, and found guilty of Diſobedience of Orders, in abſenting themſelves from their Duty and Quarters, without Leave, above ſix Days at one Time, ſhould, in like Manner, be immediately ſent up to the Savoy, in order to be draughted for Recruiting ſuch of his Majeſty's Regiments as now are or may be in the Weſt-Indies, Minorca, Gibraltar, or the Plantations.

And whereas ſeveral Soldiers may have deſerted from different Regiments, and may be at this Time again inliſted in other Corps in his Majeſty's Service,

His Majeſty is graciouſly pleaſed hereby to grant his Pardon to all ſuch Deſerters as aforeſaid, (excepting ſuch as are in actual Cuſtody for ſuch Offence) and likewiſe to declare, it is his Royal Intentions, that they ſhall continue in his Service, in the Regiment in which they now ſerve, without being moleſted, or reclaimed by the Officers of the reſpective Corps to which they did formerly belong.
